

Student/Family Communication Pathway

*In cases involving allegations of discriminatory harassment (such as sexual harassment or racial harassment) a student or parent/guardian may skip a step in the pathway if it would require them to make the grievance to the person alleged to have engaged in the harassment.