GCS may indemnify any person who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Director or Officer of GCS, against expenses (including attorney's fees), liability, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such persons in connection with such proceedings if such person (a) acted in good faith, (b) reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in an official capacity with the GCS, that the conduct was in the best interests of the GCS and, in all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the GCS, and (c) with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. Indemnification under this Section 2 in connection with a proceeding brought by or of the GCS shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself be determinative that the person did not meet the standard of conduct set forth in this Section 2.

Section 3. Successful Defense on the Merits: Expenses

To the extent that a Director or Officer of the GCS has been wholly successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding to which he was a party, such person shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding.

Section 4. Determination of Rights to Indemnification.

Any indemnification under Section 2 of this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the GCS only as authorized in each specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director or Officer is permissible under the circumstances because such person met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 2. Such determination shall be made: (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested Directors who at the time of the vote are not, or were not, threatened to be made parties to the proceeding; or (b) if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by the vote of a majority of the members of a committee of the Board of Directors designated by the Board, which committee shall consist of two or more Directors who are not parties to the proceeding (Directors who are parties to the proceeding may participate in the designation of Directors to serve on such committee); or (c) if such a quorum of the Board of Directors cannot be obtained or such a committee cannot be established, or even if such a quorum is obtained or such a committee is so designated, but such quorum or committee so directs, then by independent legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors in accordance with the preceding procedures. Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to the reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that, if the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by independent legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation of legal expenses shall be made by the body that selected such counsel.

Section 6. Other Employees and Agents

The GCS shall indemnify such other employees and agents of the GCS to the same extent and in the same manner as is provided above in Section 2 with respect to Directors and Officers, by adopting a resolution by a majority of the Directors of the Board specifically identifying by name or by position the employees or agents entitled to indemnification.

Section 7. Insurance

The Board of Directors may exercise the GCS's power to purchase and maintain insurance (including without limitation insurance for legal expenses and costs incurred in connection with defending any claim, proceeding, or lawsuit) on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, Officer, employee, fiduciary of another domestic or foreign corporation, nonprofit corporation or other person or an employee benefit plan of the GCS against any liability asserted against the person or incurred by the person in any such capacity or arising out of the person's status as such, whether or not the GCS would have the power to indemnify that person against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

Section 8. Non-exclusivity of Article

The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights and procedures to which one indemnified may be entitled under the Articles of Incorporation, any bylaw, agreement, resolution of disinterested Directors, or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director or Officer, and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, and administrators.
